2012 EVENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Breaking news, the second annual 2012 Rocky Mountain Surf Festival will be held June 9th & 10th in Glenwood Springs, Colorado. This one of a kind Polynesian themed extravaganza will feature surfing contests at the Glenwood Springs Whitewater Activity Area, music, food and product vendors, a costume contest, a Goof Off, a limbo competition, an impromptu float in all types of crafts on the Colorado River and planet earth's best river stand up paddlers displaying their paddling prowess on the snowmelt swollen Colorado River.

RIVERBANK CLEAN UP

The event coordinators have organized a river clean up in conjunction with the event. Event staff and volunteers will scour the riverbanks upstream and downstream of the whitewater activity area for trash. Our goal is to leave the park area much cleaner than it was before the festival.
